Amn't I a handsome fella?
Just a friendly storyteller.

The world is busy; I am lonely,
But no one can say I am phoney.

Full of joy, never slightly.

I am Ruby; it's my birth right.
Look at me now! I shine so bright!

Ruby

Singing! Dancing! It's what I love.
I bring you light, it's why I'm loved.

Siblings that you never forget,
Finding songs from our heartbeat.
Our friendship will keep us going,
Laughter and smiles keep us growing.
Laughing is a source of food,
The jokes we share are always good.
Here in the box; keeping it tight,
We are complex; stay up all night!
